Media Consent and Release Liability Form

Minor Children (under 18)

Project Cornerstone is a 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to educating the public about the importance of local construction aggregate resources like sand, gravel and crushed stone. Throughout the school year, Project Cornerstone gives presentations and leads educational activities in the classroom and on field trips.

To promote the organization's activities, students may be featured in materials used to increase public awareness of Project Cornerstone's programs through newspapers, newsletters, radio, TV, websites, DVDs, displays, brochures, and other types of media.

I, as the parent or guardian, give permission to PROJECT CORNERSTONE INC and its employees, representatives, and authorized media organizations to use my child's photograph/likeness/work/voice for use in audio, video, film, or any other electronic, digital and printed media used for promotional and/or educational purposes.

a. This is with the understanding that neither PROJECT CORNERSTONE INC nor its representatives will reproduce said photograph, interview, or likeness for any commercial value or receive monetary gain for use of any reproduction/broadcast of said photograph or likeness. I am also fully aware that I will not receive monetary compensation for my child's participation.

b. I further release and relieve PROJECT CORNERSTONE INC, its Board of Trustees, employees, and other representatives from any liabilities, known or unknown, arising out of the use of this material.
